Waratah-Wynyard Mayor Robby Walsh has described a new luxury resort at Table Cape as the most exciting development ever received by the Council.

The $90 million development, which will be situated at 22 Ransleys Road was approved at the Monday night's Council meeting.

"This is a real game-changer for the whole North West region with enormous benefits for tourism and the local economy," Mayor Walsh said.

"Significant employment opportunities will be generated throughout the construction phase, which is expected to take up to two years and with 116 full time equivalents.

"Post construction there will be more than 80 ongoing positions and it is projected to inject $77.8 million into the local economy over the next 20 years."

The resort will include 26 deluxe rooms, 16 premium suite, eight villa suites, a 250 seat farmer's restaurant, a dedicated function centre with a capacity of 150 people and a smaller function space capable of holding 80 people.

Mayor Walsh said he looked forward to seeing the construction process begin.

"I will be watching the progress with great anticipation of this resort becoming an extraordinary landmark for the region."
